Chinese New Year “Night Market 2016”
Let’s celebrate Chinese New Year and cultural diversity at East-West!
Unite our Western and Eastern communities!

Date: January 14th 2016

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Happy New Year! As we start the year 2016, we also welcome the new Lunar New Year of the Monkey (Monday, 2/8/2016)! Lunar New Year, also known as the Chinese New Year is the first day of a lunar (moon) calendar instead of a Western (solar/sun) calendar year. It is widely celebrated as the most important holiday in many East and Central Asian countries.

You and your child are cordially invited to attend the “Night Market 2016” hosted by the Chinese Culture Club here at EWSIS. This special school event is to celebrate the first time this is a public school holiday – the Chinese New Year of 2016! This night gala includes an international dinner, surprise market performances, more than a dozen exciting game booths, staff and student “pie-in-the-face” competition, a simulation new year count-down and much more! Admission is FREE, activities, food and beverages are purchased separately by choice. All proceeds will benefit the Chinese Culture Club to promote and deepen the appreciation of cultural diversity here at EWSIS.

Time: Thursday / 5-7:30PM
Location: EWSIS Cafeteria
Cost: FREE Admission includes 2 tickets. Additional tickets for game participation, food and drinks may be purchased at the Bank Booth.

Please return this signed permission slip to Ms. He (Room 426). If you have any questions or would like further information, feel free to contact us at (718) 353-0009 or e-mail directly to bhe@ewsis.org.

Sincerely,

Ms. He and the Chinese Culture Club
