Mrs. Luong: SLT Training

- Presented information and slide packets
- Training is now mandatory for all SLT members
  - SLT training cannot be done during SLT meeting
- Mr. Cromer: The training will be done at PTA. Teachers will be given time for the training during school meetings.
- Mr. Bantz: Any takeaways from the meeting
  - Mrs. Luong:

- Everyone must speak up.
- Be professional when coming to a consensus.
- Mrs. Wong: Everyone should participate.

Mr. Ganpat: If any item needed to be added to the agenda, please e-mail dganpat@ewsis.org

- Mrs. Tillet: Please send minutes to all members of SLT

Mrs. Luoung: Homework policy still stands.

- Mr. Bantz: Discusses the reasons for current homework policies.
- Ms. Tillet: There is too much homework being given.
- Hali: There is a responsibility to the student to do the homework.
- William: Strategies homework based on priorities.
- Ms. Markinson: If students are struggling they can always e-mail questions or ask in class the next days.

Ms. Tillet: Any updates on the elevator

- Mr. Cromer: There will be a renovation of the elevator.

Ms. Tillet: Wake up calls

- Mr. Cromer: Follow up on the attendance team.
  - Tone and early morning entry approach to students must be addressed.
- William: Some students do not like the attitudes of how they are treated during the morning.

Ms. Curzio:

- Issue with attendance. Child marked absence on final attendance record.
- Mrs. Zambrano resolved issue.
- Mr. Markinson: Attendance is taken during every class. If there was a mistake, students can come with a change of attendance of form.
  - Will parents be for a notification every time student is marked absent?
  - Mr. Cromer: We must have a vote on this. We will survey parents through e-mail blast and based on that result we will implement policy.

Ms. Tillet: Winter Concert was there a homework pass?

- Mr. Bantz sent out e-mail.
- Extend the permit longer.

Ms. Luong: Can we revisit uniform policy? Do study

- Mr. Cromer: Staff and student will be given a survey. Once the data is looked at we will respond accordingly.

Hali Siew: Why are the seniors not having an overnight trip?

- Ms. Markinson: Last year students did not have a trip because the majority of students were off track.
  - Seniors who were on track were given the opportunity to come together and schedule a trip.
    - They did not meet.
- Mr. Cromer: Students are approved to have a trip. Let us meet with student government and Ms. Marinos have a discussion.

Mr. Cromer: Midterm

- Dept chair met and discussed a midterm for each department. One subject per day.
- Preparation for end of the year exams.

Items for next meeting:

- Revisit uniform policy

Meeting adjourn 5:15
