SCHOOL LEADERSHIP TEAM

March 20, 2018

Minutes

March 20, 2018

Meeting called to order at 7:05 AM

Mrs. Curzio summarized meeting from January

Mr. Cromer:

→ There is a push from SIT: East-West is being proactive and any student who failed with a 55 for the 1st MP will come in over spring break to make up work for credit.

→ This is offered to 11th/12th graders who need to make up 1 or 2 courses and will be able to get help from the content teacher in the room.

Review of procedures of school:

→ The NYPD has been receiving constant threats to schools across NYC.

→ When a lockdown is called only an authority can lift it.

→ The NYPD came to EW to educate students on reposting content on social media.

→ There is a constant police presence outside.

→ Mrs. Nicodemi reviewed difference between soft & hard lockdowns.

SAT Testing 3/21:

→ 12PM lunch will be delivered upstairs

→ Students will attend their 7th and 8th period class.

→ Mock algebra regents will take place as well.

→ Ms. Wong: Concern with amount of homework given before test.

8th Grade Parent Meeting:

→ Meeting is for parents who have chosen to go to other schools.

→ Plan is to present the data on schools

→ will have translators available

Nominations for SLT meetings 2018-2019:

→ UFT 2 year term, Ms. Markinson's term may be up, she will check.

→ PTA 2 year term, there will be a seat open for PTA next year.

PTA Meeting 4/14:

→ Awards meeting

GED Prep Program for Parents:

→ Teachers will run prep class for parents to prepare them for the test.

→ Hopefully start by May.

Robotics Program:

→ All computers and materials ordered.

→ Seeking teachers to facilitate.

→ Approximately 60 kids from computer class now would be taking the course.

Department of Education - Work-Based Learning:

→ New initiative, 216 hours required to earn elective credits.

Mr. Cromer opens meeting to new business:

→ Ms. Tillet's concern was about Phantom of the Opera trip, difficult to recognize EW students when they are not in uniform.

→ Solutions include: being explicit with expectations, norming around trip expectations, and to possibly break students into groups with assigned chaperones.

→ Ms. Curizo requests black gym pants.

Follow up required:

→ Female bathroom receptacles

Meeting adjourned 7:52AM
